Events and Shows

The 2017 show is now in full swing .

Tonight is your last chance saloon if you are hoping to attend any of the last remaining shows of this year , one or two of them it is TOO late but speak to Darren if you are interested .

Show reports as follows

This is the Ford Fair show report. from Mike Vines

Thankfully we had a break from all the rain recently, as we headed cross country to Silverstone for Ford Fair.

Some of us made the wise choice of staying overnight to beat the queues or had an early start (I was up at 4am!).

Ford Fair is a show you need to arrive early too. As it's the largest Ford show in Europe, it's very popular and people were in the queues to get in for 3 hours!

Another great turn out for the Bristol group, with a great variety of models. The weather helped with so many cars on display, there is so much to look at.
